

Local Dealer takes show of a different kind to Saltillo, Mexico

McAllen, TX. – On February 12, 2004, Kirk A. Clark of McAllen, Texas, will have a one-man art show at the Universidad Tecnológica de Coahuila, Centro Cultural Universitario located in Ramos Arizpe, Coahuila, Mexico, near Saltillo. An opening reception will be held at the cultural center, located at the corner of Calle Ignacio Allende Y General Charles, beginning at 6:00 PM on the evening of February 12, 2004. The show will remain open through March 19, 2004.

The title of the show, "Otros Mundos / Other Worlds" brings together sixty-seven pieces including an array of sculptures, mixed media paintings, drawings and mono-prints which explore spiritual realms, the birth of the universe, discoveries of the sea, and the new "Shockwave" series, which depicts the sonic and sub-sonic communication between sea mammals. The study of Quantum physics, String theory, and the atomic nature of the universe, including mankind and God's other creations, all play a role in the creative exploration process displayed in this colorful and vibrant art show.

Examples of Kirk's "Shaman Conversion" cross series will also be on exhibit at the show, as well as Mr. Clark's unique "Atomic Jesus" works, which were first displayed at the Zane-Wheeler Gallery on the plaza in Taos, New Mexico several years ago. Works from the "Universe Below" series are also included. This series depicts the compression of a view of outer space through the Hubble telescope, with a view enjoyed while snorkeling over a coral reef.

" I have a compulsion to explore the unknown and under known. I invite you to look through your mind's eye at the show, leaving the filters of your experience at the door. Bring your own oxygen because the air is thin where your imagination is about to travel. I hope that you enjoy the show as much as I have enjoyed the creative process. I hope to see you in Ramos Arizpe February 12, 2004."
